

Gentlemen:

Please do not allow the broadband signaling over open powerline to be allowed.

With the advent of the personal computer, enough EMI is generated in our ham bands. I am very thankful for the privilege of having amateur radio operating time. The power companies will be able to control the grid by other means. Money doesn't entitle an organization to deprive others of their privileges.

Thank you,
John Wolfe (WA0BNZ 42 years)